Section 15. The State shall protect and promote the right to health of the people and instill health consciousness among them.;

WHEREAS, the Philippine Plan for Gender Responsive Development, Women in Development and Nation Building Act, the Magna Carta of Women, Joint Memorandum Circulars Nos. 2011-01, 2012-01 and 2013-01 provide for the recognition of women's rights to protection from all forms of violence, prescribes the creation and strengthening of the GAD Focal Point System in institutionalizing, mainstreaming and aligning Gender and Development programs, and for agencies of government to give priority to the defense and protection of women against gender-based offenses and help women attain justice and healing, and also requires for mandatory training on human rights and gender sensitivity to all government personnel involved in the protection and defense of women against gender-based violence;

WHEREAS, the Joint Memorandum Circular No. 2013-01 issued by the Philippine Commission on Women (PCW), the Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG), Department of Budget and Management (DBM), and the National Economic Development Authority (NEDA) prescribed guidelines in mainstreaming and aligning Gender and Development (GAD) in the planning, programming, budgeting, legislation, monitoring and evaluation of local government units;

WHEREAS, special laws like the Anti-Sexual Harassment Act of 1997, the Anti-Rape Law of 1997, the Rape Victims' Assistance and Protection Act of 1998, the Anti-Violence against Women and their Children of 2004, the Responsible Parenthood and Reproductive Health Act of 2012, the Expanded Anti-Trafficking against Persons Act of 2012, and the Safe Spaces Act of 2019, serve to protect women and all genders from all forms of physical violence and abuse, exploitation and provided penalties for violation.

WHEREAS, the local government of Pasig City has passed ordinances, resolutions and executive orders in line with abovementioned concerns for the promotion and protection of women in areas like health, employment, as well as attempts to craft earlier versions of the GAD Code, namely Ordinance No. 7, Series of 2010 and Ordinance No. 7, Series of 2015.

WHEREAS, new technologies and more matured systems were developed during the last decade and thus the need to revise and make the city's GAD Code more in tune with the requirements of this 2020 decade.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Sangguniang Panlungsod of Pasig that:

Book I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER I
BASIC PRINCIPLES

ARTICLE I

TITLE, GAD PRINCIPLES, POLICIES AND STRATEGIES

Section 1. TITLE - This Ordinance shall be known as the 2020 Revised Gender and Development Code of Pasig City.

Section 2. DECLARATION OF POLICY AND PRINCIPLES OF THE CITY GOVERNMENT OF PASIG CITY – It shall be the policy of the city government to ensure that women/girls and men/boys benefit equally and participate directly in the processes of different development programs and projects of the different departments/sectors and ensure the full participation and involvement of these gender groups in the development process following the provisions and principles upheld in various international commitments and national statutes/decrees where the Philippines is a signatory.

It shall also uphold the rights of women/girls and cultivate and strengthen their belief in and recognition of their worth as human beings as guaranteed in the Philippine Constitution and other relevant laws and pronouncements in the country. Any development endeavor that the city undertakes shall uphold the rights of women, enhance and harness women's full potentials, uplift their status and lead to the improvement of the quality of their lives, their families and their communities

Women shall also be recognized as full and equal partners of men in development and nation-building, and men shall share equally in all forms of productive and reproductive activities and responsibilities. The city government shall actively contribute to the establishment of a national and international economic order based on sustained, equitable growth and balanced ecology making full use of the potentials and skills, talents of women.

Pasig City is strongly against gender-based discrimination and shall pursue strong measures to prevent and deal with, in the strongest terms, acts of violence and discrimination against women, LGBTs and children.

Towards the aforementioned objectives, the city government shall pursue and implement vigorously gender responsive development policies, design and integrate specific gender support systems, take into consideration women's and girls' right to economic survival, political participation, self-determination and personal empowerment, adopt and implement measures to protect and promote their rights, and ensure the widest participation of women from local government, non-governmental organizations and civil society organizations and the private/business sectors in all phases of the development program cycle.

ARTICLE II
DEFINITION OF TERMS

Section 3. DEFINITION OF TERMS – The following terms or phrases used in this Code shall mean as follows: -

1. Abortion - the ending of a pregnancy by removal or expulsion of an embryo or fetus.
2. Six Building blocks of Health – these are (1) service delivery, (2) health workforce, (3) information, (4) medical products, technologies & vaccine, (5) financing, and (6) leadership/governance. This comes from the Department of Health plans.
3. Complications of Abortion – the most common post unsafe abortion complications are Hemorrhage, Sepsis, Peritonitis, Deep vein thrombosis and even Death.
4. Gender and Development (GAD) – refers to the development perspective and process that are participatory and empowering, equitable, sustainable, free from violence, respectful of human rights, supportive of self-determination and actualization of human potentials. It seeks to achieve gender equality as a fundamental value that should be reflected in development choices; seeks to transform society's social, economic, and political structures and questions the validity of the gender roles ascribed to women and men; contends that women are active agents of development and not just passive recipients of development assistance; and stresses the need of women to organize themselves and participate in political processes to strengthen their legal rights.
5. Gender – is a socially constructed difference between women and men for all sexual orientations and gender identities, created artificially, partly through socialization and partly through positive and negative discrimination in the various institutions and structures of society.
6. Gender-Based Discrimination - unequal or disadvantageous treatment of an individual or group of individuals based on gender. Sexual harassment is a form of illegal discrimination.

7. Gender-based violence (GBV)- is violence that is directed at an individual based on his or her biological sex or gender identity. It includes physical, sexual, verbal, emotional, and psychological abuse, threats, coercion, and economic or educational deprivation, whether occurring in public or private life.
8. GAD Budget — a portion of an agency's or a local government unit's yearly appropriation which is not an additional amount over and above its regular budget; the allocation of a substantial amount for implementing programs, projects and activities that address gender issues and the cost and sources of financing a GAD plan.
9. Gender and Development Systems and Structure
  - 9.a GAD Focal Point System (GFPS)- is an interacting and interdependent group of people in all government instrumentalities tasked to catalyze and accelerate gender mainstreaming. It is a mechanism established to ensure and advocate for, guide, coordinate, and monitor the development, implementation, review and updating of their GAD plans and GAD-related programs, activities and projects (PAPs);
  - 9.b GAD Plan and Budget (GPB)- is a systematic approach to gender mainstreaming, carried out by all government instrumentalities, through the annual development and implementation of programs, activities and projects and addressing gender issues and concerns in their respective organizations, sectors and constituencies by utilizing at least 5% of their total budget allocation;
  - 9.c Gender Mainstreaming - refers to the strategy for making women's as well as men's concerns and experiences an integral dimension of the design, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation of policies and programs in all political, economic, and societal spheres so that women and men benefit equally and inequality is not perpetuated. It is the process of assessing the implications for women and men of any planned action, including legislation, policies or programmes, in any area and at all levels. The ultimate goal of mainstreaming is to achieve gender equality.
10. Gender Equality- refers to the principle asserting the equality of men and women and their right to enjoy equal conditions realizing their full human potentials to contribute to and benefit from the results of development, and with the State recognizing that all human beings are free and equal in dignity and rights.

11. Gender Equity - refers to the policies, instruments, programs, services, and actions that address the disadvantaged position of women in society by providing preferential treatment and affirmative action. Such temporary special measures aimed at accelerating de facto equality between men and women shall not be considered discriminatory but shall in no way entail as a consequence the maintenance of unequal or separate standards. These measures shall be discontinued when the objectives of equality of opportunity and treatment have been achieved.

12. LGBT – Collective term for Lesbians, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender.

13. Life Cycle Approach to Health - a concept that emphasizes on prevention and early intervention at every stage of life – intrauterine period, early childhood, adolescence, youth, middle age and old age. The assumption here is Outcome at one point in the life cycle might be a determinant for health elsewhere further in the cycle.

14. Maternal Health –refers to the health of women during pregnancy, childbirth and the postpartum period. While motherhood is often a positive and fulfilling experience, for too many women it is associated with suffering, ill-health and even death.

15. Reproductive Health - a state of complete physical, mental and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity, in all matters relating to the reproductive system and to its functions and processes.

16. Responsible Parenthood - as defined in the Directional Plan of POPCOM, is the will and ability of parents to respond to the needs and aspirations of the family and children.

17. Public Spaces - refer to streets and alleys, roads, sidewalks, public parks, buildings, schools, churches, public washrooms, malls, internet shops, restaurants and cafes, transportation terminals, public markets, spaces used as evacuation centers, government offices, common carriers, public utility vehicles (PUVs) as well as private vehicles covered by appbated transport network services, other recreational spaces such as, but not limited to, cinema halls, theaters and spas, bars and clubs, resorts and water parks, hotels and casinos, and all other areas, regardless of ownership, openly accessible or offered to be accessed by the public.

Section 31. Breastfeeding will be promoted through the infant and young child feeding program of the City Health Office, the Pasig City General Hospital and Pasig City Children's Hospital and the provision of breastfeeding facilities in all city government offices and by requiring private establishments to provide the same.

Section 32. Reproductive Health Care Delivery.

Reproductive Health (RH) Defined. As defined in the International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD) and World Health Organization (WHO) and affirmed in the Beijing Conference, reproductive health is a state of complete physical, mental and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease and infirmity in all matters relating to the reproductive system and to its functions and processes. This also means that people are able to have a satisfying and safe sex life and have the capability to reproduce and the freedom to decide if, when and how to do so. Pasig City shall adopt the reproductive health care approach at all levels of health care delivery. Such approach integrates many issues not previously considered which are central to population; sexuality, reproductive tract infection, gender, power relations and domestic violence and shall not be limited to family planning and child bearing.

Section 33. Reproductive health care- refers to the access to a full range of methods, facilities, services and supplies that contribute to reproductive health and well-being by addressing reproductive health-related problems. It also includes sexual health, the purpose of which is the enhancement of life and personal relations. The elements of reproductive health care include the following:

- (1) Family planning information and services which shall include as a first priority making women of reproductive age fully aware of their respective cycles to make them aware of when fertilization is highly probable, as well as highly improbable;
- (2) Maternal, infant and child health and nutrition, including breastfeeding;
- (3) Prevention of abortion and management of abortion complications;
- (4) Adolescent and youth reproductive health guidance and counselling;
- (5) Prevention, treatment and management of reproductive tract infections (RTIs), HIV and AIDS and other sexually transmittable infections (STIs);
- (6) Elimination of violence against women and children and other forms of sexual and gender-based violence;
- (7) Education and counselling on sexuality and reproductive health;
- (8) Treatment of breast and reproductive tract cancers and other gynecological conditions and disorders;
- (9) Male responsibility and involvement and men's reproductive health;
- (10) Prevention, treatment and management of infertility and sexual dysfunction;
- (11) Reproductive health education for the adolescents; and
- (12) Mental health aspect of reproductive health care.

The City Government of Pasig shall endeavor to set up appropriate programs and services to address the problems of the Pasiguenos related to these different RH elements.

Section 34. Women's Control Over Their Bodies. Women's decision to prevent and plan pregnancy shall be given appropriate support and guidance by all health professionals, private and public, at very minimal cost to the women.

Section 35. Responsible Parenthood. The City Government shall promote and provide responsible parenthood information and services to all Pasiguenos and provide free, ethical, legal, safe and effective methods of family planning with high level of consideration to shared responsibility between women and men in planning and building their families.

Section 36. Gender-Fair Approach to Pre-marital Counselling Program. The review and redesign of the Pre-marital Counselling Program of the Local Government of Pasig City shall be jointly undertaken by the Gender and Development Office, City Health Office, the City Social and Development Office, and selected NGOs to make it a more gender-fair premarital counselling service.

Section 37. Sexuality Education and Health Services shall be provided to all Pasiguenos which are age, gender and culturally-sensitive. There shall be an Adolescent Sexual Reproductive Health Program which will establish the policy for understanding the phenomenon of early pregnancy and promote the institutionalization of comprehensive sex education, adolescent health and development and to have access to Family Planning methods to address early teenage pregnancies and repeat pregnancies. This program will be spearheaded by the City Health Office in partnership with the Department of Education and selected NGOs and CSOs.

Section 38. Gender-Sensitive Crisis Intervention Unit. The Local Government of Pasig City shall cause the establishment of a Gender-Sensitive Crisis Intervention Unit at all levels of health care (primary, secondary and tertiary) and shall provide service training to all health and other allied personnel who shall be assigned in this unit

Section 39. Prevention and Management of Gynecological Conditions and Malignancies, including Breast Cancer. It is recognized that gynecologic conditions are among the top contributors of morbidity and mortality among women and thus affect a woman's quality of life and longevity. The City Government shall provide the necessary diagnostic facilities and treatment facilities for the prevention and management of these conditions and shall capacitate its health human resource for the early detection and referral of such cases. In this regard the Obstetric and Gynecological Center based at the Pasig City General Hospital shall be coordinating with the Cancer Center.

Section 40. Prevention of Abortion and Management of Pregnancy-Related Complications. All pregnant women in Pasig will be provided with the necessary care so as to prevent abortion and manage pregnancy-related complications. It is recognized that an effective prevention measure is family planning.

Section 41. Prevention and Management of Mental Health Conditions, including Substance Abuse and Post-Partum Depression. Mental health conditions are some of the least recognized and diagnosed medical cases affecting women and the general population. Mental health conditions, including substance abuse and addiction issues, contribute greatly to the lessening of a woman's quality of life. The City Government will train its healthcare providers and provide logistics so as to provide screening, primary care management of women with such issues.

Section 42. Women and Non-Communicable Diseases. The City Government will provide diagnostic and therapeutic services to women of all ages aimed at managing chronic and lifestyle-related conditions. Also, the City Government will advance the promotion of preventive and promotive healthcare for women aimed at advancing healthy lifestyle and empowering life choices.

Section 43. Health enabling environment - Unsafe and destitute urban conditions result in vulnerability to violence, crime, abuse and ill-health, particularly for women and children. The City Government shall endeavor to determine the socio-economic determinants of women's good health and to implement measures to promote these and prevent the negative factors. It will have a special feature of classifying areas of the city into levels of poverty, destitution and security of health and lives. Appropriate intervention programs shall be conceptualized, tested and established on a broad programmatic platform.

Section 44. Women and children during disasters and epidemics - Climate Change, Degraded Environments and Health Disasters - many of the most important diseases, such as malaria, dengue, and waterborne diseases, are highly sensitive to climatic conditions. The recent COVID 19 pandemic threatened health conditions of women and children, escalating women's reproductive health needs including high risk pregnancies, teen age pregnancies, abuses and related health needs.

The City Government, having learned from the recent and current experiences shall be more prepared with its quick responses to calamities which balance requirements of health, security of life vis a vis economic resiliency. The pandemic experience shall be used in order to identify and build the pillars for readiness in dealing with unexpected disasters and pandemics. A strong gender component for the policies and programs shall be integrated. This calls for research and amore forward - looking framework for health planning.
