GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 2. USE OF APPROPRIATED FUNDS AND SAVINGS – Funds shall be available exclusively for the specific purpose for which they have been appropriated. However, the City Chief Executive and the Vice Mayor as Presiding Officer of the Sangguniang Panlungsod are hereby authorized to realign or augment any items in the approved Annual Budget for their respective offices from savings in other items within the same expense class of their respective appropriations.

Section 3. TAXES, FEES, AND ASSESSMENTS. All taxes, fees, charges, assessments, and other receipts and revenues due the city and collected by the Treasurer, in the exercise of his/her functions, at such rates as are or may be approved, shall accrue to the General Fund.

Section 4. DONATIONS. The City, upon prior authority from the Local Chief Executive, may receive donations, contributions, grants, bequests or gifts, in cash or in kind from various sources, domestic or foreign for public purposes. Such donations, contributions, grants, bequests or gifts whether in cash or in kind including the proceeds from the sale of donated items, shall be deemed automatically appropriated for the purpose specified by the donor. The proceeds however from the sale of donated items, when the donor has not so specified the purpose thereof, shall form part of the General Fund.

Section 10. FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO CIVIL SOCIETY AND NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS. The City Mayor is hereby authorized to provide assistance, financial, or otherwise to Civil Society and Non-Governmental Organizations for economic, socially-oriented, environmental, or cultural projects, including those engaged in the promotion of sports, to be implemented within the territorial jurisdiction of Pasig City: Provided, however that such Civil Society and Non-Governmental Organizations are duly accredited with the City Government pursuant to Department of the Interior and Local Government Memorandum Circular No. 2022-083 dated 15 June 2022.

Section 11. FISCAL DISCIPLINE. All departments, offices, units shall implement fiscal discipline measures and review their respective expenditure programs in order to avoid implementation of ineffective programs and low priority projects and activities.

Section 12. PROHIBITION AGAINST ADVANCE PAYMENT. No money shall be paid on account of any contract under which no services have been rendered or goods delivered, except those allowed under R.A. No. 9184 and its implementing rules and regulations.

Section 13. CASH ADVANCE AND/OR REVOLVING FUND. No cash advances shall be granted to officials or employees, elective or appointive, unless made in accordance with existing rules and regulations, executive orders, or memoranda duly issued by the City Mayor.

It is hereby declared a policy of the City not to grant cash advances until such time that earlier cash advances availed of by the officials or employees concerned shall have been liquidated pursuant to such rules and regulations, executive orders, or memoranda.

Recurring regular or periodic activity or undertaking of each department, office, or unit shall be adequately planned and programmed to avoid resorting to cash advances.

Revolving funds shall only be established and maintained for specific departments, offices, or units only if expressly authorized by law or covered by this Section. The amount of the revolving fund per allowed department, office, or unit shall be based on historical data on the amounts of previous incidents in a period of one month which warranted the need for the revolving fund.

Disbursements from such revolving fund allowed should only cover unforeseen or emergency purchases which would render procurement through regular means cumbersome and detrimental to the continuance of operations in the department, office, or unit. All disbursements should adhere to all existing accounting and auditing guidelines for each expense item.

Such revolving fund should be replenished as soon as 50% of the fund is consumed.

Section 14. SAVINGS AND AUGMENTATION. The City Mayor for the Executive branch and the City Vice Mayor for the Legislative branch may augment or re-align savings from funds or an item of expenditure duly appropriated herein; provided, however, that the said augmentation or re-alignment shall be made only within the same expense classification.

Section 15. REALIGNMENT. The amount appropriated in this Ordinance for acquisition, construction, replacement, rehabilitation, and completion of various capital outlays or expenses appropriated for Property, Plant, and Equipment, may be realigned/ reallocated in cases of unbalanced allocation of projects, duplication of projects, overlapping of funding source and similar cases.

Section 16. TRANSACTION AND CONTRACTS. The City Mayor shall represent the City in all its business transactions and sign all bonds, contracts, and obligations and such other documents of whatever kind or nature in accordance with the Local Government Code of 1991.

Section 18. PROCUREMENT OF CRITICAL SUPPLIES. All offices/departments shall ensure the timely and sufficient provision of critical supplies, particularly those which, by its nature, use or characteristic, the quantity or exact time of need cannot be accurately pre-determined.

Critical supplies shall refer to those vital to the support of operations which, owing to various causes, are in short supply or are expected to be in short supply. This includes fuel, equipment spare parts, personal protective equipment (PPE), COVID-19 response items, and other analogous items. For this purpose, offices/departments concerned shall resort to available modalities in the procurement of critical supplies, subject to the provisions of R.A. No. 9184, its IRR, and GPPB guidelines. The inventory thereof shall be subject to the provisions of Section 17 of this Act.

Section 19. SEMI-EXPENDABLE PROPERTY. Tangible items below Fifty Thousand Pesos (Php50,000) shall be accounted as semi-expendable property.

Section 20. INVENTORY OF SUPPLIES, MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT SPARE PARTS. The inventory of supplies, materials, and equipment spare parts to be procured shall not exceed the two-month requirement for each office/department.

The heads of offices/departments may increase their inventory of critical supplies, materials, and equipment spare parts to be procured in any of the following instances: (i) in anticipation of cost increases; (ii) necessitated by a national emergency; and (iii) when there is an impending shortage. The purchase of stocks exceeding the one-year requirement of each office shall be subject to approval by the City Mayor, upon the recommendation of the Office of General Services.

Offices/Departments may undertake emergency procurement of supplies, materials, and equipment spare parts when there is an unforeseen contingency requiring immediate purchase subject to the conditions prescribed under R.A. No. 9184, its IRR and GPPB guidelines.

Section 21. SALE OF NON-SERVICEABLE, OBSOLETE, OR UNNECESSARY EQUIPMENT. The Office of General Services is hereby authorized to sell non-serviceable, obsolete, or unnecessary equipment, including motor vehicles, in accordance with the existing laws, rules, and regulations. Section 22. MULTI-YEAR CONTRACTS. The issuance of a Multi-Year Contracting Authority (MYCA) or any similar document shall be required before entering into multi-year contracts, subject to the requirements and guidelines prescribed by the DBM. Provided, that, for foreign-assisted projects funded by foreign loans, the issuance of a MYCA shall no longer be necessary.

In the procurement of projects that are already indicated in this Executive Budget as recurring and/or multi-year projects, the enactment by the Sangguniang Panlungsod of the Appropriation Ordinance shall constitute the MYCA for said projects. For projects whose recurring nature or multi-year implementation is not indicated in the Executive Budget, a MYCA in the form of a Resolution from the Sangguniang Panlungsod authorizing the City Mayor to enter into multi-year contracts shall be secured prior to the commencement of such project.

In the case of recurring procurement projects such as, but not limited to, solid waste management services, hazardous waste management services, janitorial services, security services, supply of drinking water, telecommunications requirements, rental of office space and equipment, regular maintenance services for air-conditioning units, sewage treatment plants, elevator systems, and motor vehicles, and recurring maintenance services for software and information systems, the City may either: (i) secure a MYCA or an equivalent authority; or, (ii) renew the ongoing contract to not more than one (1) year, subject to assessment or evaluation of the contractor's performance. For projects subject of a MYCA, the total contact period, inclusive of renewals, shall not exceed three (3) years.

Procurement of recurring and/or multi-year projects shall be subject to the provisions of R.A. No. 9184, its IRR, and relevant GPPB guidelines. The end-users/implementing departments, offices, or units shall ensure that the annual funding requirements for such multi-year projects are included in their budget proposals for the covered years, consistent with the funding schedule in the MYCA or equivalent authorities, and letter of commitment. In all instances, the disbursements to be incurred for recurring and/or multi-year contracts shall not exceed the fund appropriated/obligated for the purpose during the year.

Section 25. EMPLOYMENT OF CONTRACTUAL PERSONNEL. Contractual personnel may be hired to perform functions or specific vital activities or services that cannot be provided by the regular or permanent staff of the City, subject to compliance with the organizational staffing and compensation standards set by the DBM. The total annual Personnel Services requirement for contractual personnel to cover salaries, and other personnel benefits and fixed expenditures shall, in no case, exceed the lump sum appropriations for the purpose, except when there is an urgent need to hire contractual personnel in the implementation of the priority activities or projects, subject to approval of the DBM.

Contractual personnel shall be considered as an employee of the City but only during the period when their services are reasonably required. Existing contractual employees who are qualified for any vacant position within the agency to which they wish to apply shall be considered in the hiring of permanent employees.
